

How sensible is it to have a dragon as a pet?
English focus question

- Class book : The Boy Who Grew Dragons
- Instructional text : How to trap a dragon
- Extracts from 'How to train your Dragon'
- Maths : treasure maps, create a dragon using 2D shapes

Challenge Curriculum Nov-Dec 2018

Nearly 100 years on : why remember the post-war era of the roaring 20s?

Challenge 1: Can you wire your house?
Science : electricity.
History : the invention of electricity by Edison (famous scientists) and how electricity changed people's lives in the 20s and 30s.
 Comparison of lives in 1920s and today and the impact of electricity .
DT: design a 1920s house and provide it

Challenge 3: Do animals speak our language?
English : classics—Dr Doolittle
French : a visit to Park d'Auxois
Language : can animals talk?

Challenge 4 : Was New York a sensible place to be in the 1920s?
Geography and culture : Cities - New York. Compare and contrast with New York today.
History : New York in the 1920s. Emigration to the USA
English : screen-play - fantastic beasts and where to find them / Diary : arriving at Ellis Island

Challenge 6: Which people left their mark in the 1920s?
Art : famous artists—focus on Kandinsky and Delaunay and Klee
French : follow instructions to create your own Kandinsky masterpiece.
History, music, art, DT : famous artists (as above), musicians (eg. Louis Armstrong and Jazz) inventors such as Henry Ford (cars) authors such as A.A. Milne,

Challenge 5: What can we learn from Winnie the Pooh?
English : extracts from the A.A. Milne classics
Film : how does the film Christopher Robin give us insight into life just after the Great War?
PSHE : How wise was Winnie the Pooh?
DT / outdoor learning and forest school : can we build a new home for Eeyore?

Challenge 6: 100 years ago—a good time for all?
History : votes for women
British Values : comparison between 100 years ago and today